Next, from the main balcony, the city's mayor, Pau Ricomà Vallhonrat, will introduce the proclaimer of the Festa Major 2021, singer Ángel Odena. The trumpeters of the City Council then play the second Toc de Pregó, leading on to the Proclamation.

Finally, the third and last Toc de Pregó announces the unveiling of the city's flag, accompanied by a salvo of twenty-one mortar explosions. At the same time, from the bell tower of the Cathedral, the Tocs de Pregó is joined by the pealing of the bells in one of the most highly-anticipated acoustic moments. Finally, the Proclamation Mortar Volley by the Pirotècnia Igual firework company from Canyelles (Garraf) sets off a deafening volley that reaches every single corner of the city from this most emblematic Tarragona square. The event concludes with the first Amparito Roca of the festivities by Tradiband, the Band of Traditional Instruments of Tarragona. The Amparito Roca pasodoble is the soundtrack to Santa Tecla. This melody has been taken to heart by the people of Tarragona because it is the music that makes our Seguici dance, but it is not the only one.
